

FOREIGN GOVERNMENT SHIP

The property of a foreign government not in use or intended for use for commercial purpose cannot be arrested in an action in rem. The government may consent to the use of such process. If the ship belongs to Government of Foreign State, in that event consent of the Central Government in India would be required to proceed against the vessel and its owners.